On 3 November 1984 Informant 22-04 reported the following information which he obtained from a confidential source of the Austrian State Police, Salzburg, Land Salzburg, Austria. 1. Marco Heinrich van MST, born 28 December 1937 in Innsbruck, Austria, Austrian citizen, registered at Rathausgasse 4/d, o/e Schneider. Former employee in the Land office of the Land health insurance (Landeskrankenversicherung) office, is currently residing in Innsbruck, Land Tyrol, Austria, where he obtained an apartment through the French authorities. He is working for the French Intelligence Service and also allegedly is gainfully employed in the French Headquarters in Innsbruck. 2. Previously, MST had worked for German Intelligence under Heinrich Heuttl, born 10 March 1916 in Vienna, Austria. Heuttl, who has worked for various intelligence agencies, has been dropped by German Intelligence because of arguments with his German superiors and because of his involvement in the Panger/Vorster affair. For some time Heuttl has been active for French Intelligence and he was influential in getting MST his job with the French. Officially, Heuttl has no income except small royalties from his books; however, his standard of living would require an income of between 6,000 and 8,000 schillings per month. 3. The file cards of this section list the following two persons, one or both of whom are probably identical with SUBJECT of this report: One 'Lucky' dist, born 28 December 1937 in Innsbruck, Austria, address: Kufensstrasse 1/a, Innsbruck, is listed as an alleged employee of TIB; and Heinrich Mat, born 28 August 1937, is listed as a TIB employee.
